Message from the director

Welcome everyone to the start of the 2023 Marching Band Season. I am looking forward to getting everything started on July 4th and throughout the summer. I am excited to make the jump from Assistant Director to Director for my first full year and looking forward to meeting all the returning and incoming students and parents.

If you have any questions feel free to reach out whenever you need to. My email is anaroff@wpsd.k12.pa.us. I am looking forward to a great season.

-Adam Naroff

Welcome to our band staff for the 2023 season!

We welcome Matt Kelly as our new percussion instructor!

Our returning staff members include...

Chris D'Arcy - Visual & Color Guard Director

Joe Carano - Brass instructor

Arden Epstein - Pit percussion instructor

John Simonnet - Assistant Band Director & Woodwind instructor

In search of...

We are always in search of friends and family to help throughout the season! Whether it's being a helping hand for loading and unloading the truck, moving equipment at competitions and football games, donating snacks for our Saturday rehearsal or just coming and supporting the band. All are welcome!

We are also specifically in search of band family members that could drive our 26 ft Penske Box truck to and from competitions and football games. Please see our attached schedule for dates.

If you are interested in any of these opportunities please contact Mr. Adam Naroff (anaroff@wpsd.k12.edu)
